

Definitely Can

by Brett Birkill

Falling down it seems so bad so fast
Once was great now looks like it never will last
Didn't want to stop but my luck has just passed
A hopeless time trying to pick myself up off the ground

Came down from a present life of fortune and fame
Now reduced to a feeling of a crying shame
So used to being at the top of my game
Try my best to block the bad times and negative sound

But I strive for the future cut ties with the bad
Drop my crying and stand up for all I care for
Never let a chance move by and kick feeling sad
No more thinking I can't when I definitely can

Drop back a bit but my heart starts to pump
Only way forward is to push on over this hump
Can't stop me now I'm tired of the slump
Feeling good and dreamin big it's all turning around

But I strive for the future cut ties with the bad
Drop my crying and stand up for all I care for
Never let a chance move by and kick feeling sad
No more thinking I can't when I definitely can

Look at me now I aint going to stop
Feeling so strong I'm rushing back to the top
Single minded right I've finished with my drop
My love for life and will to win has headed homebound

But I strive for the future cut ties with the bad
Drop my crying and stand up for all I care for
Never let a chance move by and kick feeling sad
No more thinking I can't when I definitely can