

Elm Tree

by Brett Birkill

At first glance we were a mile apart
A chance created by the touch of our hearts
Something clicked so we both made our mark
Worked it out never wanted to depart

You were always around to stand by me
Side by side you allowed my mind to run free
No complaints and a smile that I longed to see
Now you rest under a weeping elm tree

Life was simple when we were together
Time was tight we knew nothing was forever
Didn't want hide knew you were always too clever
You loved to do it all no matter the weather

You were always around to stand by me
Side by side you allowed my mind to run free
No complaints and a smile that I longed to see
Now you rest under a weeping elm tree

Might be the end but memories live on Tried hard to say hello by writing this song
Hear me speak then just keep moving along
No matter what we forever belong

You were always around to stand by me
Side by side you allowed my mind to run free
No complaints and a smile that I longed to see
Now you rest under a weeping elm tree

You were always around to stand by me
Side by side you allowed my mind to run free
No complaints and a smile that I longed to see
Now you rest under a weeping elm tree
Oh you rest under a weeping elm tree
