

Trees And The Ocean

by Brett Birkill

Trees and the ocean
Wind in slow motion
My mind and my body
Always fails to see

How time moves on by so fast
How life flashes right on past

One day we're together
Soon after forever
The touch of your sweet kiss
Is something that I'll miss

How time moves on by so fast
And life flashes right on past

How time moves on by so fast
And life flashes right on past

How time moves on by so fast
Ooh and how life flashes right on past
